THE TRADITION OF FATHER'S DAY

The tradition of Father's day goes back to 1910. It was conceived in America by a West Virginian woman called Grace Golden Clayton who was deeply moved by a mining disaster which had left 1,000 children without a father and organised an event at her church to celebrate fathers. In 1966 the first presidential proclamation honouring the day was issued in by President Lyndon Johnson who announced it should be celebrated on the third Sunday in June. President Nixon later signed the public law that made it permanent in 1972.

When I was at school all those years ago, making your card and homemade present for Mother's Day (or Mothering Sunday as we knew it then) was one of the highlights of the school year. But Father's Day? I honestly don't recall doing anything for him when I was growing up. But that's probably because it only became popular in the UK in the late seventies.

Us mums are easily pleased and always grateful. Flowers, chocolates, beauty vouchers, a meal made by the children with help from dad...even if we do have to go in and finish tidying up the mess that dad's supposedly cleaned up. So the question is, what can you do to make Father's Day special? Well, how about letting him watch back to back football (or his favourite type of programme) all day. Or what about waiting on him hand and foot for the day, with a cool beer as and when required. Or you could wash the car for him? Mind you he may well have to do it again if my experiences as a child still stand – the thought was there but the skill was sadly lacking.

In reality though, a lot of the things that we do for our mums would also be appreciated by our dads. A meal out; a bar of his favourite chocolate, a favourite photo of you and him; maybe even a relaxing back massage or a hot towel wet shave – and if he's into gardening then a visit to a local Garden Centre, with a visit to the in-house coffee shop a must, might go down well.

Alternatively, you could just give him a massive bear hug and tell him how much you love him!

Cloudy2Clear Announce Trusted Trader Partnership

Consumer champions Which? have now joined the thousands of customers who recognise that Cloudy2Clear Windows really are a business that you can TRUST. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has received the coveted 'Which Trusted Trader' status after going through a rigorous accreditation process entirely focussed on customer service.

Group Managing Director Marcus McGee believes that Which? have endorsed Cloudy2Clear's long standing company policy of delivering the highest standards possible at all times. 'Our service is simple. If your double glazing has misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Whilst a number of tradespeople perhaps don't focus on customer care as much as they should do, we make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle.'

Locally Cloudy2Clear service the Barrow-in-Furness & the Furness

Penninsular areas and manager Roger Bonnick agrees that this approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated as both my customers and, obviously a body as nationally important as Which? now recognise.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Roger a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

INSIDE OUT...

When it comes to our homes, we spend a lot of time indoors. Because of this, we tend to spend the most money decorating, cleaning and maintaining the interior of our home and our exterior living space is often forgotten.

Most homes have some type of outdoor space that can be used for relaxation or leisure. This space can vary in size from a balcony in an apartment, to fields around a country home. Whatever the size, exterior living spaces can be a great extension to our homes.

When designing an outdoor living space, you must first decide what you want to use the space for and what needs it must fill. If you are designing a deck or patio, the size of the space should depend on how you plan to use it. Will you add a range of outdoor furniture? Or will it purely be a dining area with table and chairs?

Theme wise, try continuing your indoor colour scheme out to the patio or garden. This is important if an interior space opens directly onto the outdoor living space. French doors or sliding glass doors can not only increase the amount of light brought into your home, but can also make your outdoor space appear as more of a continuation of the home.

Whatever you decide to do with your outdoor space, it is wise to make sure that it meets both your family needs and your budget. A little bit of planning in advance will mean that you can enjoy this space for many years to come.

We have a rich heritage and a proud tradition for World Leading Advanced Manufacturing & Engineering Excellence

Planning to invest in advanced manufacturing in the Northwest of England or Cumbria, then do it here in Furness. The Furness area has UK Assisted area status and it is set to continue to 2020. Companies will qualify for enhanced discretionary capital investment or job creating grants. Opportunities exist to attract in operations of companies currently located outwith Cumbria which could be attracted into the area.

Starting early in 2015 the building of a 321,000ft² Strategic Bulk Store (SBS)/Logistics facility will represent the first phase of BAE Systems multi million pound Barrow site redevelopment programme for the Successor Programme which involves the development and build of the next generation of submarines to replace the Trident fleet. The new build will take place on Phase 1 of The Waterfront Business Park. The development will create demand for more plots to be provided on Phase 2.

The proposed Barrow Island Growth Zone seeks to build on this investment to create jobs in advanced manufacturing and to support the supply chain for Furness and national companies. A new era of site investment at The Waterfront Business Park, Barrow-in-Furness, one of NW England's best coastal strategic sites for business growth is upon us. Alongside, and integral to, port land and operations delivered by Associated British Ports plc the Cumbria County Council owned Business Park provides space for local firms' expansion, inward investment by companies from other parts of UK or overseas. It is also suitable for firms keen to expand their supply chain presence serving either manufacturers in Cumbria or UK and global markets.

The UK Government is offering £5m from 2016 to undertake ground works and allow serviced plots to be created together with incentives offered to firms to grow on The Waterfront. A new programme of enabling works and site preparation will run from Summer 2015, aiming to complete plots ready for use by late 2016. It is vitally important that the Barrow Travel to Work Area has available both quality premises and serviced land if current and future business enquiries are to be converted into investment commitments leading to creation of new job opportunities and potential to attract in new firms, facilitate growth of existing firms and the creation of new business. Furness College is planning an Advanced Manufacturing Technology Centre to support the skills growth.

Although manufacturing is important across the whole county, the sector has a significant concentration in the Furness Peninsula. Investment proposals from major international blue-chip companies are set to create 3,000 jobs in the Barrow and Ulverston area. Between 2015 and 2022, in the wider Cumbria area, huge investments collectively worth circa £45 billion, including £6.6bn of new infrastructure will commence. Over the next 7 years around £1bn of investment will be made in advanced manufacturing companies in the Furness area of Cumbria. £300m plus investment in new buildings, processes and infrastructure for delivery of the Successor programme by BAE Submarine Solutions in Barrow and £350m in a new bio pharmaceutical plant by Glaxo Smith Kline in Ulverston are the most significant investments.

These are complemented by investments in Siemens, Centrica and other companies.

The Furness Economic Development Forum (FEDF) has evolved from an initiative led by John Woodcock MP for Barrow and Furness which saw the launch of "A National Cradle for Advanced Manufacturing - Towards a new economic vision for Furness".

FEDF is a public private sector partnership. Its objective is to support the economic growth of the Furness area (defined as the area within the Barrow and Furness Parliamentary Constituency boundary) and its companies through leadership, direct provision of services by partner organisations, by influencing others and coordinating.

The Forum is working closely with the Cumbria LEP to facilitate economic growth.

The first task has been to develop a Delivery Plan (2014-2017) of prioritised actions aimed at:

- Inspiring local people to exploit career opportunities, develop skills and further entrepreneurial strengths and
- Enabling companies to exploit growth potential to service UK and global markets by improving supply

There is only one location:
BARROW-IN-FURNESS

chain penetration using operating bases located in the Furness peninsula

- Facilitating infrastructure, transport and environmental improvements

The delivery plan's key message is to promote the importance of advanced manufacturing and advanced manufacturing skills to the Cumbrian and Furness economy.

The FEDF has reached Agreement with the Cumbria Local Enterprise Partnership and local partners to prioritise a funding "ask" in the LEP's Growth Deal proposals to Government which allows for a spring 2015 start on:

- An Advanced Manufacturing Technology Centre on the Furness College site in Barrow
- Introduction of a supply chain strengthening business support programme

- New infrastructure at Barrow Waterfront Business Park and a start on opening up Marina Village housing site south of Salthouse Road, Barrow
- East Ulverston infrastructure and flood prevention investment to open up sites

LOOK GOOD, FEEL GOOD FATHERS

As this month is National Men's Health Awareness and Father's Day, the focus will be on male grooming and men's health.

There is no doubt about the fact that male grooming is as vital as it is to women; it is the fine art of looking and feeling good, which involves trendy clothing, fashionable accessories and tip top personal care.

Massages, surgery, styled hair, fake tan, shaped eyebrows and manicured nails are just some of the male grooming treatments available at salons for men, as well as a range of products to buy to use at home. As a result, the market in male grooming products is seriously booming with moisturisers, shaving creams and foams, shampoos, conditioners, aftershaves, deodorants, hair styling products and even anti-wrinkle creams designed and made especially for men.

On a vanity level, our need to look good and feel good is likely due to our modern obsession with looks and comparing ourselves with the models and celebrities that we see every day in the media. So, it begs the question, is male grooming only about increasing vanity levels among men? Not necessarily. In a fast paced and highly cut-throat world, your appearance is of great importance, regardless of gender.

Here are some top tips to get you started:

You've probably heard it before, but if you're still not protecting your skin with sunscreen you obviously haven't heard it enough. Sunscreen will help prevent the damaging effects of sunlight and keep your skin looking younger for much longer.

Drinking too much can wreak havoc on your skin's appearance (and the rest of you as well) so limit your alcohol intake.

Getting a good night's rest will help your body fight the effects of aging and will keep your skin looking its best.

Regular exercise helps improve circulation and brings more oxygen and nutrients into your skin cells.

Quit Smoking – Easier said than done, but one of the best things you can do for your skin as well as your overall health and longevity. Smoking deprives your skin of oxygen and causes premature ageing.

Eating healthily is another fabulous way to help prevent ageing and improve your appearance from the inside out.

Maintain a balanced diet that is low in saturated fats and rich in nutrients and antioxidants.

Follow these guidelines and you will look and feel fantastic in no time. Just remember, there are no rules; except to keep at it and don't give up!

A voucher for treatments specifically designed for men would make a great Father's Day present.

Champagne & Strawberries

BEECH HILL HOTEL

Friday 24th June 2016

Nothing says summer like English strawberries; along with the thwack of tennis balls on strings, chilled jugs of Pimm's and lemonade and unexpected rain showers, fresh English strawberries are one of the best indicators that summer has finally arrived.

Strawberries are delicious, even in some rather unusual combinations, but our favourite pairing is always with Champagne. So tonight we celebrate the start of the great British summer with an extravaganza of 'Champagne and Strawberries'.

On arrival you will be greeted with a glass of Champagne and a selection of beautiful handmade canapés. You will then move through to Burlington's restaurant for a 5 course gourmet meal, designed around the 'Champagne and Strawberries' theme, with background music from our resident pianist. During dinner you will meet Paul Collins, a Sommelier from our wine merchants, who has specially selected the Champagne for each course of your meal.

CLARENCE HOUSE HOTEL

Skelgate, Dalton-in-Furness, Cumbria LA15 8BQ
T: 01229 462508

www.clarencehouse-hotel.co.uk

Clarence House Hotel is located in Dalton-in-Furness on the edge of the English Lake District.

The family run hotel is one of the highest rated hotels in the South Lakes area and one of the jewels in the crown on the Furness peninsula. Clarence House is renowned for one of the finest dining experiences in the beautiful setting of the Cumbrian South Lakes, an area known for the quality of its food and drink.

Clarence House is one of only a handful of places to have been invited by the Lake District farmers to use their renowned local produce! All the food here is specially selected and freshly prepared, using only select prime produce from the hills and lakes of Cumbria for the imaginative menu's served at their Courtyard Restaurant.

In the mornings many people drop in for one of their speciality teas and Italian style coffees to enjoy with either a Clarence House freshly baked cake of the day, homemade scones, croissants or toasted teacakes from the lounge menu.

And, if the thought of those freshly baked cakes hasn't made your mouth-water, then their lunch menu will! Why not start with the Herb Fed Chicken & Leek Terrine wrapped in Cumbria Parma Ham, Sour Red Cherry and Crab Apple Chutney, or the Langoustine, served with Tapioca Crisp, Salt, Mousse, Fennel Leaf and Tomato Caviar.

For Main course, how about the perfectly prepared North Atlantic Red Fish, with Butternut Squash Puree, Pickled Girolle Mushroom, Sea Herbs and Port Reduction, or the Cartmel Game Wild Rabbit Saddle, with Leg Fritter, Date Puree, Sprout Leaf Rabbit Hot Pot Potato, Lemon Thyme and White Wine Sauce. And to finish, could you resist the Treacle Tart, Salted Caramel Ice Cream and Parkin Puree?

With 2 courses for only £19.95 and 3 Courses for £24.95, here you will find a dining experience to savour, at a price you can afford.

And what about the evenings? Well, this is when Clarence House really comes alive! With a 1AA rosette restaurant and an individually priced A La Carte dinner menu, you couldn't fail to enjoy some of the wonderful starters, such as Lake District Farmers Belly Pork, Parsnip Veloute, or the Devonshire Brown Crab.

For main course you should try the 40 Year Old Whisky Smoked Banbury Duck. Lake District Farmers 300gm Ribeye Steak with Duck Fat Chips, Plum Tomato, Field Mushroom & Beer Battered Onion Rings or the Atlantic Cod poached in Olive Oil, Samphire, Oyster, Garden peas, Nettles and Onion Shell.

And with an extensive range of wines to complement your food and a tempting array of desserts I am sure that you will be coming here back time and time again.

Last, but not least, now that the weather is starting to get warmer, there is nowhere better than the beautiful gardens and outdoor terrace at Clarence House to enjoy al fresco dining - the perfect way to enjoy one of their fabulous afternoon teas with freshly cut sandwiches, cakes, scones, jam and clotted cream for only £16.95 per person or add a glass of fizz to complete the experience for just £3.00. (Booking essential).

Clarence House is very easy to get to and has a large private car park, so it is the ideal place to meet up for business, as part of a group on a day out, or just for friends looking for somewhere special to spend time together with good food in a relaxed environment.

Tel: 015394 36387

Stunning scenery and a perfect combination of comfort and elegance left me in no doubt why Sawrey House was the perfect choice for a recent overnight stay in the heart of the Lake District.

A short journey on The Windermere Ferry, followed by a short drive into the beautiful village of Near Sawrey and you arrive at the charming 19th century converted Victorian House.

I met owner David in reception and was shown to the room situated on the second floor with a breathtaking view of the fells from its large window. The rooms here are all individually created and have lovely character and individuality with the local scenery quite clearly in mind. The rooms are immaculately presented and come with free WiFi, en-suite bathrooms, luxury toiletries and freeview TV.

The outside terrace of this beautiful 1830s manor enjoys stunning views of Esthwaite Waters and on a clear May afternoon, couldn't have looked more tranquil and summed up everything that we all love about the Lake District. The outside gardens and patios are the ideal place for a drink before tea and I would imagine offer year long pleasure to the guests and residents of Near Sawrey.

I knew dining at Sawrey House was going to be special, the AA Rosette menu that I had browsed mid-afternoon looked delectable, boasting a real choice of local produce which always gets a big thumbs up. Head Chef Callum Harvey has really demonstrated his flair for tradition with modern twists, the menu looked truly special from top to bottom.

The starters of bread and olives and poached asparagus were presented beautifully. The breads were accompanied with dipping oils and sun blushed tomatoes and the mixture of white, wholemeal and granary breads were a real treat. The asparagus was poached to perfection and arrived with a herb salad, poached egg with a chive beurre blanc.

For the main courses, it was reasonably easy as I was keen to sample the local Cumbrian pork and beef on offer. The honey glaze local pork belly, spring onion mash and damson sauce was simply divine. The stark contrast of the damson sauce with the melt in the mouth pork left me incredibly impressed.

The local prime sirloin steak was cooked perfectly and was accompanied by creamy mash and red wine jus. It's evident that the menu on offer here has been created with sound knowledge of local produce and a real eye for detail, full marks to Callum and his team!

I make no apologies for mentioning the presentation of the food and hotel as a whole again. A running theme throughout the night was the attention to detail that can sometimes go missing these days. The attentive and friendly staff, make guests feel welcome as soon as you walk through the door and are a real credit to Sawrey House.

You really get a sense of tranquility at Sawrey House. The surrounding scenery is stunning and quite simply breathtaking first thing in the morning. A perfect couples retreat or the ideal base to explore all that the Lake District has to offer, you will be hard pressed to find a more idyllic retreat than Sawrey House.

Park Rd, Grange-over-Sands LA11 7HQ
T: 015395 33026

www.clarehousehotel.co.uk

So here we are again, in the lovely seaside retreat of Grange over Sands.

It really is a gorgeous place to be, even though on our visit the weather was doing its best to spoil any views across the estuary! I was happy to drive there today (which is probably why we arrived early!) although I generously allowed Miss Daisy to take the wheel on the return journey (no prizes for guessing why...) As we had time to kill and it was too darned cold to do our normal wander through the pretty gardens and along the promenade, we just whiled away an hour or so admiring some of the spectacular houses and the amazing views once the sun finally deigned to make an appearance - just before the hailstones arrived. Oh, the wonders of global warming.

Clare House is dead easy to find: follow the 'Esplanade' (how very posh) onto Park Road and just keep following it until you come across Clare House on your left. This grand building is an award winning family run hotel and restaurant which has been in the Read family since 1969, the restaurant is open to non residents each day for breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea and of course dinner.

Georgia, one of the family, welcomed us in and brought our usual drinks order (you can probably guess by now which one of us had the lime and soda...) and some big fat juicy olives, to one of the lounges whilst we perused the day's menu. The dining room opens at 6.30, you can book your table for anytime between then and 7.30. There was a flurry of activity as guests came in to dinner – obviously all looking forward to their fabulous food. The dining room is light and bright and as there are two separate areas it is not overcrowded. To get the tastebuds going we had a zesty orange and tomato soup, then for my starter I had mini breakfast! Field mushrooms on sourdough toast with poached egg (I'm a sucker for a poached egg) crispy pancetta and hollandaise sauce, which was really tasty. Miss D had one of her faves too – tender ham hock terrine which seemed to go down rather well.

She then chose roast chicken breast with pancetta and gruyere, wild mushrooms and Madeira sauce, beautifully presented and delicious, likewise my roast tenderloin and pulled belly of pork with fennel and apple sauce.

We then paused before arguing over who had which dessert. We even considered asking for one of each in the interest of a fair, balanced review, but when we saw there was also a cheese course we thought better of it! So Miss Daisy had sticky toffee pudding with home-made butterscotch ice cream and toffee sauce (drool) and I had iced Bailey's parfait with chocolate and walnut brownie and a vanilla bean sauce. Mmmm.

And yes, we did have a tiny bit of room for cheese as well, because the size of the portions served for each course is perfect – definitely quality over quantity. The cheese board is as long as your arm (well mine anyway, but then I am only 5' tall) and includes such delights as Amber Mist (a grown up cheddar with peaty Scotch Whisky) and Durrus which smells of hay and wet soil (am I selling it to you?!) and tastes buttery and acidic. The detailed descriptions remind me of 'that' M&S advert – I can hear a voiceover coming on!

To accompany your meal are a selection of carefully chosen wines by the glass, alternatively there is an extensive, reasonably priced wine list. You can also have a glass of port with your cheese – this is often my downfall, but I resisted temptation for once. We topped it all off with coffee and petit fours back in the lounge. After chatting with chefs Andrew and Mark who clearly love what they do, it was time to depart. So off we trundled (thanks Miss D), full but pleasantly so, into the night.
