CONTENTS

As Christmas Day fast approaches, don't leave it too late to start on your Christmas shopping – as the more time you give yourself, the more you will enjoy the festive experience.

Whether you are looking for the perfect present for someone you know, a friend or relative, or even that special little something for your own Christmas wish-list, then our Local Choice Christmas Guide is here to give you all the ideas you will need to make this Christmas an enjoyable one.

With hundreds of gift items, the latest must have gadgets and lots of ideas and places to visit for all the family, I'm sure that you will enjoy reading our new magazine. Why not try to relax and enjoy reading it at home, maybe in front of a roaring log fire, or with a warm glass of mulled wine, to really get you into the festive spirit.

Merry Christmas everybody, let's make it a good one.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Let me guess, Christmas is right around the corner, you have lots of people to buy for, no budget set and no idea what to buy. Trust me, you are not the only one! Even the most organised of people struggle when it comes to buying gifts. You've bought mum perfume for 3 years in a row, dad has been getting designer socks ever since he can remember and you stock up on chocolates for all aunties and uncles. This year it's time to change it up! But don't worry, we've put together a handy guide to buying thoughtful and special gifts for all the important people in your life.

FOR HER

The Busy Lady - She is always rushing from meeting to meeting, goes to the gym 4 times a week, always looks fantastic and generally seems to have her whole life planned. Three perfect gifts for this lady are a fancy diary, a new handbag, or a new scarf and gloves set to keep her toasty while rushing around in the colder weather. She will use all these items and will be sure to be excited when unwrapping any of these gifts!

The Fitness Fanatic - She does yoga on Monday, runs on Tuesday, swims on Wednesday and hikes on Thursday. Whenever you go to dinner with this lady you can be sure there will be plenty of veggies on her plate. Trust me, a new pair of trainers is the way to this girls heart, pop in a pair of yoga pants and a trendy sports bottle and you're on to a winner.

The Beauty Queen - This girl is the definition of glamour and style, she knows all the trends before they even hit the catwalk and her makeup is flawless 24/7. What do you get the girl who knows all the styles and seems to have everything? A brand new pair of hair straighteners or a hairdryer is always useful to the beauty queen. Another fantastic gift would be makeup brushes, there are always new innovative brushes on the market with fancy designs that beauty fanatics will appreciate. Pamper days and treatments are always a hit too.

The Student - These girls have been studying hard all year and trust me when i say this - they need relaxation during the festive period. Comforting scented candles, luxurious bath oils and a super cosy fishtail blanket are just what they need. They will thank you for such a thoughtful gift.

FOR HIM

The Businessman - Very similar to the busy lady. Always on business trips in different cities and countries and has amazing stories of people he's met. His luggage needs to be replaced all the time as it gets so beat up, so a nice holdall or wash bag will always be appreciated, as well as a super soft neck pillow or a fancy wallet - He'll think of you every time he uses it!

The Gamer Guy - Two words... Beanbag Chair. Easy to move round when playing on his PlayStation or Xbox and is a comfy way to enjoy gaming. In addition to this, a new game for his console will also be appreciated by this guy. A t-shirt relating to his favourite game would also make a cool and thoughtful gift

The Foodie - He knows all the hotspots to eat and cooks amazing stir-fry, this guy is always hungry and the closest takeaway has been on speed dial ever since he had a phone. An obvious gift is to buy this food lover vouchers for his favourite restaurant, but if you're looking for something slightly more personal, a food hamper of local produce is always a great idea.

The Literary Lover - Gets through 8 novels a month, can always be spotted at the library and attends a night-time science fiction book club. You would buy him a book, but let's be real, what will he not have already read? A fantastic festive hit would be a kindle, so he can read on the go, or a bookish gift such as a special leather bookmark, or a journal to document his reading in.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES

Baby's First Christmas - Babies love colourful and exciting toys, such as colourful bath toys or a cuddly plush that makes plenty of different noises and has different textures, to enhance the baby's senses. If the baby has just far too many toys, a lovely gift would be pyjamas, or a cute winter outfit. The baby will look adorable, and parents will appreciate this!

1 - 2 Years - Suddenly they are crawling and walking round and enjoy making a mess and causing havoc. The perfect gift for these little toddlers are activity centres, with blocks, sounds, shapes and colours to promote learning and curiosity. This is healthy for the babies mind and great fun too! If these are out of the price range, fun interactive gadgets like toy phones are loved by children of this age too.

3 - 5 Years - Children enjoy learning at this age, and the world around them will be one huge curiosity. Books are always a great gift for this age, as it promotes learning and is also a fun activity to read with parents. Dolls are also popular with children at this age along with Thomas the Tank Engine and other pre-school characters and is sure to be a big hit. Another fun gift for children aged 3-5 years are DVD's, this is a super engaging and fun gift for any child.

6-8 Years - At this age, children will usually have a very clear favourite character from his or her favourite cartoon, whether that is a Disney Princess or a Marvel Superhero. A gift that will make you popular at Christmas would be something themed. If they love comic books, a cool spiderman figure will make their day. Some popular toys this Christmas include Lego, Disney's Tsum Tsums and Shopkins.

9-11 Years - This age is all about getting the coolest new gadget or toy to show off to their friends, such as the latest console, the newest doll on the market, or a brand new pair of football boots. Asking their parents is usually the best idea - this way, you'll know exactly what they're hoping will be underneath the tree.

Teenage Years - Makeup is going to become increasingly popular with all the teens in your life, right about now! To avoid disappointment with your 14 year old cousin this year, invest in a makeup set, or their very own eye shadow palette. You can also never go wrong with a perfume/aftershave set or a new pair of trainers. If makeup isn't their thing, shower gel sets are a big hit, or their own hair gel.

The thought you put into the gift is always much more important than the actual gift, and how better to say you appreciate someone than to buy them a bespoke gift from a local Christmas market with their name on, or a one of a kind design? Check out markets and pop up shops near you this Christmas to blow everyone away with fantastic gifts.

Put a heart-warming fire, with real wooden logs, at the centre of your 2016 festivities!

Logs Direct is a family based business established for many years supplying Kiln dried logs, kindling, charcoal, smokeless fuels and firelighters. With distribution throughout the UK they can ensure you keep warm this Christmas.

Stunning decorative logs such as Silver Birch have come to the fore this season as an alternative to traditional tinsel. From creating a decorative log store to tied bundles of decorative birch logs, Logs Direct are happy to provide expert advice and produce bespoke designs to fit every space perfectly.

As featured on BBC's Countryfile in October, Logs Direct have become the first stockist in Northern England of Brackettes - a new, unique super fuel that have many benefits over conventional heat logs. Made from 100% bracken they burn hotter and longer than oak.

HEALTH & BEAUTY

PARTY MAKE-UP

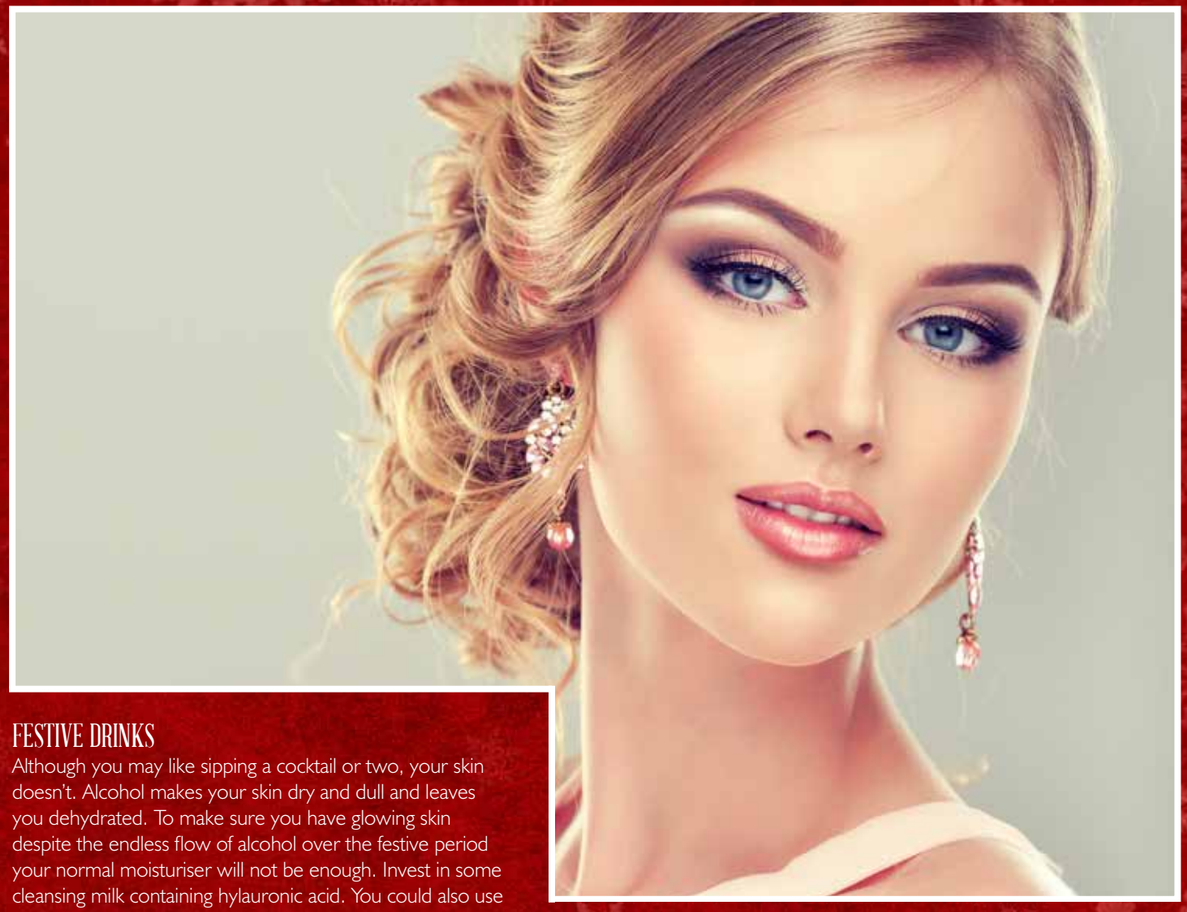
If you want to look beautiful this Christmas, you need to choose the right make-up. The key to looking fabulous for the festivities is to put on your eye shadow first. Then apply your foundation and any other make-up. This way any loose eye shadow can be brushed off and won't spoil that perfect foundation.

HAIR UP 'DO

It is such a busy time at Christmas and it can be difficult to find the energy to play around with hair styles. But if you want to look fantastic then one of the best tips you can master is the art of the simple up 'do. Try twisting one section from the front of your hair and pin into place at the back of your head. Do the same with the other side. Then take the rest of your hair and tie up in a messy bun. This look is quick, simple and elegant.

GLITTERY LIPS

Nothing says Christmas like glitter so splashing out on some glittery lipstick will definitely bring you some Christmas cheer. Line your lips with a nude coloured lip pencil and add foundation to the corners of your mouth. Using a lip brush, apply a creamy lipstick before adding on your glitter. Finish with a gloss to complete the look. The one thing you need to take into consideration if you are wanting glittery lips for Christmas is that drinking, eating and kissing may be off limits; so decide on your priorities before glittering up that pout.



FESTIVE DRINKS

Although you may like sipping a cocktail or two, your skin doesn't. Alcohol makes your skin dry and dull and leaves you dehydrated. To make sure you have glowing skin despite the endless flow of alcohol over the festive period your normal moisturiser will not be enough. Invest in some cleansing milk containing hylauronic acid. You could also use a face mask which contains alpha-hydroxy acids, as this helps to destroy dead skin and moisturises and firms up the skin.

TIRED EYES

All those nights partying is bound to leave even young eyes looking tired. Stay looking bright and alert by giving yourself a little eye massage to get rid of those puffy eyes. Begin at the corner of one of your eyes and work your way up rubbing as you go until you reach the outer edge of your eye. Repeat along your lower lash line. Also, be careful about where you apply your blusher as applying it too high can make you look tired.

FLAT STOMACH

We have a few tricks that might make that desired flat tummy a little more achievable. Try taking aloe vera juice or peppermint capsules which both do a fantastic job supporting the digestive system preventing bloating which can help towards a flat stomach. You can also cut out foods that cause excessive gas and bloating. Try to limit things that contain refined sugar, or fermented products like alcohol and cheese.

ENJOY YOURSELF

It sounds simple, but whatever you're up to this Christmas, make sure you spend time with people you like and who make you feel good about yourself. Having a fabulous time is the perfect beauty treatment because when you're having fun, it shows: your eyes shine, your skin glows and everyone warms to you.

Santa Special Cruises

Our most popular cruise at Christmas

A magical warm up to Christmas, as we cruise through the winter scenery, our pixie serves the children cake & cordial as they lookout for Santa who is hiding nearby with presents and treats for them all, whilst adults enjoy a glass of Mulled Wine or Tea/Coffee and mince pies. A colouring competition is held on the return journey judged by Santa & his Pixie.

1¼ hour cruise with a choice of two departures times. Departs 11:00 & 13:00

Nov 26th & 27th, Dec 3rd, 4th, 10th, 11th, & 17th

Santa Twilight Cruises

Our most popular cruise at Christmas

As the light fades from the day, we set sail as our pixie serves the children cake & cordial as they lookout for Santa who is hiding nearby with presents and treats for them all, whilst adults enjoy a glass of Mulled wine or Tea/Coffee and mince pies. Children also enjoy a game of pass the parcel & ask Santa before ending with a souvenir photo of the cruise which is magically emailed to you by our pixies!! 2 hour cruise. Departs at 15:00

19th, 20th & 21st December

Magical Santa Cruises

The ultimate children's Santa experience!!

As we set sail from the marina in the winter afternoon our pixie helps the children look out for Santa who is waiting nearby with a very special assistant, the one and only QUEEN ELSA!! A special present along with magic reindeer food are awaiting the children and a souvenir photo is magically emailed to you and then a game of pass the parcel with Santa & Elsa, colouring competitions and of course ask Santa/Elsa before they carry on their winter journey! Mulled wine & mince pies are supplied for the adults whilst the children enjoy cake & cordial!! A special party bag is then awaiting the children as they leave the boat.

Despite this being a later cruise we are ensuring plenty of magical lighting

2 hour cruise departing at 16:00 with the option to add a snack pack.

Looking after you.

SAME KITCHEN... DIFFERENT YEAR?

It's 6am and the kids are banging on the bedroom door, insisting they want to open their presents right now! Groggy eyed you make your way downstairs and Christmas Day begins. Every year is the same. The turkey is put in the oven, stuffing made, vegetables peeled. Every single year, something seems to go wrong with the dinner (Who forgot to pick up the turkey?!) Avoid the stress and book for the whole family to eat out and enjoy a hassle free Christmas dinner with all the trimmings (and no washing up). This doesn't need to be super expensive and is a wonderful way to celebrate the day.

WAYS TO KEEP THE KIDS OCCUPIED WHILE OUT FOR DINNER

They've gotten so many toys they don't know what to play with! When leaving the house allow them to take one toy each, whether that's a doll, a toy car or a plush toy. This will keep them occupied while waiting for their dinner. Another great way to keep them occupied while you're there is to create some fun christmas games, such as a quiz, puzzles, colouring, or who can come up with the catchiest Christmas song, creating a lovely family feel to your lunch.

BUT IT'S SO BUSY!

Make sure you book in plenty of time, places can book up quicker than you think, and some restaurants even offer the service of being able to order your food in advance from a set menu, so it's prepared and won't be long after you arrive until you're tucking in to a tasty Christmas lunch. Picky eaters in the family, and nothing on the set menu they like? A carvery is a great choice! Super fast, and options to please everyone. Most carvery restaurants will have a selection of meats, vegetables, trimmings and sauces to please even the fussiest of eaters.

CHRISTMAS DRINKS

Don't feel like having to drive or fancy a few drinks with your meal? Choose somewhere close by and take a taxi! There are plenty of taxi services who operate on Christmas Day and will get you to and from your location, so you can enjoy a cheeky drink or two.

DON'T FANCY THE TRADITIONAL TURKEY DINNER THIS YEAR?

Most restaurants that open on Christmas Day will offer different options, such as a festive nut roast, a vegetable gnocchi, or a salmon dish. Check before booking if restaurants are able to cater for dietary requirements such as gluten free, or if they have vegetarian, vegan or pescetarian options.

THE BENEFITS OF GOING OUT FOR CHRISTMAS LUNCH!

Not everyone has the space at home to cook for the entire family, so by eating out, large families can be together at Christmas. The more, the merrier! Another obvious benefit is that there is no cooking or cleaning up! A totally stress free and relaxing Christmas lunch experience. It is often a misconception that Christmas lunch out is too expensive, when in reality the quality of food and the service being received is a fantastic deal! 3 course meals with a drink included can range anywhere in between the £20 - £60 mark, so there is an option that suits everywhere. Most children's portions are affordable too!

Another fantastic benefit is that not everyone has to have the same thing. Dad likes turkey but Auntie Rachel loves beef? No problem when eating out with a range of different starters, mains and desserts, everyone is happy!
