Hello and welcome to the May/June edition of Local Choice.

During this period of uncertainty, I would ask everyone to take all the necessary precautions to keep yourselves safe and healthy and to help the elderly and more vulnerable, wherever possible.

Finally, many local businesses, who employ local people, rely on Local Choice every month to promote themselves to the local community and we urge you to support them whenever you might need their services.

Kind regards, Mark Prada (Editor)

NEW PREMISES

Ctrl Alt Delete iT has moved to the High Street

After 3 short years on the Weind we have secured a new chapter for the shop to begin!

With a larger premises we hope to increase our already wide scope of services with 8mm, Super 8 and slides digital conversion coming soon, along with staff in the near future for faster turnaround on lengthy jobs like tablet repairs.

Hopefully allowing the owner Ryan the additional time needed to further branch out into supporting local businesses with whatever their technological needs may be, from CCTV to cloud and local backup solutions.

This has all been thanks to the amazing support afforded by the people of Garstang and the surrounding areas, so I would just like to say thank you.

I look forward to seeing you soon in the new shop!

JMH ROOFING

MASTER CRAFTSMAN

Professionalism & fair pricing sets JMH Roofing apart

Cheerful roofer John Horn was brought up following a strict code of family and business values.

The former Broughton High School pupil puts great store in treating customers fairly and ensuring that a top-quality job is always done for a fair price.

John says: "My background, as part of a family with a strong business sense, means that I have been steeped in how important it is to be fair, to be professional and to be honest and reliable with customers.

"I will not tell a potential customer that something is wrong when it isn't. I will not lead anybody a merry dance and will always strive to turn up, weather permitting, when I say I will turn up.

"And the work carried out will always be executed to the highest possible standard."

Because of his personal code of delivering jobs in a professional manner, John picks up many recommendations from people who have used him.

He explains: "Somebody telling a friend about me is the ultimate way to get work because people trust their friends' opinions. I will happily quote for any type of work, from a very small repair to a full re-roof or more. If it is a case of replacing just one slate, or a major re-roofing project, contact me – I have the skills to handle it.

"Keep this leaflet handy and please give me a ring or get in touch by email whenever you need my services"
